

Curriculum Vitae
Ronald A. Martino

- Education
- 1971 B.A. Rutgers University
Phi Beta Kappa
Magna Cum Laude
- 1973 Master of Medical Science
Rutgers Medical School
- 1975 M.D., Tufts University
School of Medicine
Alpha Omega Alpha

Housestaff Positions

- 1975-76 Medical-Surgical Internship,
Newton-Wellesley Hospital
Newton, Massachusetts
- 1976-78 Residency in Psychiatry,
Mount Sinai Hospital
New York, New York
- 1978-80 Residency in Neurology,
Mount Sinai Hospital
New York, New York

Research

Clinical researcher in clinical trials of antidepressant Tandamine, 1978

Military Service

Chief of Psychiatry and Neurology, Bassett Army Hospital, Fairbanks, Alaska, Major, U.S. Army, 1980-1982

Colonel (Ret.), U.S. Army Reserves, Commander, 1984th U.S. Army Hospital

Current Position

Private Practice - Psychiatry & Neurology, 1982 to present
Section Chief-Psychiatry, Fairbanks Memorial Hospital, 2003 to present
Faculty, Karl Menninger School of Psychiatry, 1985-1996

fBoard Certifications

Psychiatry, 1982
Neurology, 1984

Member

American Psychiatric Association
American Medical Association
American Academy of Neurology

Publications

Martino, Ronald A., Cognition and Death of the Brain, Chapter 4 in Cultural Issues in End-of-Life Decision-Making. Ed. Braun, K.L., et al. 2000 (Sage Publications).